

COAST CLUBS PULL TWO TRIPLE PLAYS

Season of 1911 a Notable One in History of the Diamond Game.

During the 1911 season two more unassisted triple plays were added to the lengthening record. In the Pacific Coast League, during a game between Vernon and Los Angeles, on July 21, Centerfielder Walter Carlsen, of Vernon, made an unassisted triple play, which is the description:

In the sixth inning, with the score tied, Moore and Metzger of Los Angeles walked. Pitcher Carson, of Vernon, was replaced by Stewart. Alvin, third baseman for Los Angeles, hit the first ball. Stewart pitched low. Over second base for what looked like a clean single. Moore and Metzger both got off to a hit and run signal, but Carlsen, playing close in, came forward like a flash and picked the ball off his shoetops. His lunge carried him off his feet and when he recovered both base runners, counting Alvin's drive, were safely. Had passed the second station, Carlsen passed in second and touched the bag, while Moore was still on the way to the plate, then trotted in first, retiring Metzger.

The second play of the kind was made on July 23, at Woodburn, Ore., during a game between the Woodburn and Highland teams. With the bases full, Third Baseman Calvert, of Hubbard, stubbed a line drive from the bat of Hunt, of Woodburn, touched third base, and before the runner on second could recover and start back, he was touched out. Following is the complete record of unassisted triple plays in the history of baseball:

Paul Hines, of Providence team, at Providence, R. I., in 1903.
Harry O'Hagan, of Rochester team, at Jersey City, N. J., in 1905.
Larry Schatz, of Portland team, at New Bedford, Mass., in 1906.
Neal Ball, of Cleveland team, at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1909.
Walter Carlsen, of Vernon team, at Los Angeles, Cal., in 1911.
Harry Calvert, of Woodburn team, at Woodburn, Ore., in 1911.

PAST PERFORMANCES

Well, there one record Griffith's Gladiators cannot break to-day. The crazy-quilt schedule is arranged so they go over 40 Quakerstown and engage Mack's Majestics, as they have been wont to do in the recent baseball past. While the dope is as dismal as the weather of yesterday, we broke the May 4 losing streak last year, and Phoebe the Palmist in collaboration with other soothsayers declare that nothing can beat our brave boys to-day if they make more runs than do the Big Stragglers.

Harvard Crew in Poor Shape.
Cambridge, Mass., May 5.—Harvard is three weeks behind last year in the development of its varsity eight-oar shell, was the statement made to-day by Lathrop Withington, for three years a member of Harvard's varsity crews. In summing up an outlook for the season, Withington says: "I must say that it hardly appears ready for the varsity in their race on May 21 with Cornell and Princeton. The eight has had comparatively little hard work or few long rows. Certain of its positions are still in an unsettled condition. Some of the veterans, too, have been tardy in rounding into form."

Get Busy This Week.

Secure enough votes to put you over the 5,000 mark, so that your name will appear in next Sunday's list. All names with less than 5,000 votes will be omitted from next Sunday's published list, although they will still be considered in the contest. Their names will be kept on file in the Contest Department, and put back in the list as soon as they secure the necessary 5,000 votes.

REMEMBER,

—that votes are given on subscriptions to The Sunday Herald anywhere in the United States, and to The Daily Herald anywhere outside of the District of Columbia by mail. The price of The Daily Herald is $3.00 a year, and the same number of votes are given as on subscriptions to The Sunday Herald.

SPECIAL NOTICE

All subscriptions to The Sunday Herald that are received at the Pony Contest Department on or before Thursday each week will start the Sunday following, and all subscriptions received after Thursday will start one week later.

The list of candidates and their votes will be published in The Herald every Sunday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings until further notice.
